

FAIRMOUNT WATER WORKS
PRESENTS

SEPT. 21
2014

for the love of water
Flow

1 PM
to DUSK

A FESTIVAL CELEBRATING THE ART AND SCIENCE OF WATER ON THE SCHUYLKILL RIVER

FOR THE LOVE OF WATER

Join the Fairmount Water Works for FLOW, a daylong celebration of water. The festival is free and open to all ages and will feature performers, art installations and hands-on activities, including: Drip Drums, Sonic States of the Schuylkill, a Splash Organ, a Fishway, River Net, Flood Stories, and, for the finale, a dramatic light show illuminating the Water Works exterior. The Philadelphia History Truck will also be on hand to record attendees' water stories.

SCHEDULE OF ACTIVITIES

12:00	Kickoff	4:00	Splash Organ Performance	6:00	Build a Water Drop Sculpture
1:30	Build a Water Drop Sculpture	3:30	Build a Water Drop Sculpture	7:00	Splash Organ Performance
2:00	Fishway Parade	5:00	Fishway Parade	7:45	Invisible River Dance Performance
2:30	Silk Screen Workshop	5:30	Silk Screen Workshop	8:00	Grand Finale Light Show

WHEN

Sunday, Sept. 21st, 2014

1:00 PM - Dusk (appr. 8:00 PM)

WHERE

Fairmount Water Works

640 Water Works Dr,
Philadelphia, PA 19130
(see map below)

